

Suggested Interview Questions for Lisa Troyer, Author of *A Place to Belong

1. Why do you believe that women need other women in their lives?
2. Why do you think that women tend to shy away from being transparent with one another?
3. What are some of the common issues with which women deal but are too afraid to reveal?
4. How can an atmosphere be created where women are comfortable enough to begin the process of sharing their struggles with other women?
5. What caused you to begin dealing honestly with your own issues?
6. Your Circle of Friends ministry revolves around five principles. Would you name and define those concepts for us?
7. What assistance does the Circle of Friends ministry provide to women who want to start their own group?
8. Your book, A Place to Belong, provides so many helpful resources for starting a Circle of Friends group. How can the book best be utilized?

www.findaplacetobelong.com